

FRAMEWORK FOR TEACHING

Course Packages

THE DANIELSON GROUP

COMPONENT STUDIES

Offered for classroom teachers, coaches, mentors, and/or instructional leaders

Select focus Components

Train-the-trainer model option

Component Studies are a focused professional learning workshop that help educators deepen practice, one Component at a time, within the Framework for Teaching (FFT). Through close study, participants unpack Elements of Success, analyze classroom evidence, and calibrate understanding of effective practice. The result is clearer expectations, stronger observation and feedback, and practical strategies that teachers can apply immediately. These workshops can be delivered in-person or virtually.

COACHING & MENTORING WORKSHOP

Offered for instructional leaders, coaches, and/or mentors

In-person

Blended

Virtual

This interactive experience is for educators who want to strengthen coaching and mentoring practices using the FFT (2022). Participants engage in hands-on learning that shifts observation and feedback from compliance and evaluation to growth, reflection, and improved student learning.

SAMPLE TRAINING TOPICS:

- Coaching and mentoring foundations using the FFT
- Coaching dispositions that build trust and teacher agency
- Coaching vs. evaluation: clarifying roles and purpose

Empower Teachers To Be Their Best

The Danielson Group (DG)'s professional learning pathways help educators and leaders improve their ability to establish and sustain a system and culture of professional learning where teachers feel supported. DG partnerships can range from initial adoption of the FFT to building capacity to design district-wide systems. These pathways are here to offer support to districts and schools through yearlong, comprehensive partnership.

PATHWAY 1 | Framework Foundations

Laying the Groundwork for Instructional Excellence: For schools new to the Framework for Teaching, this pathway builds shared language, aligned leadership, and confident practice.

PATHWAY 2 | Framework Renewal

Evolving Practice with the 2022 Framework for Teaching: For experienced Framework users transitioning to the 2022 edition, this pathway recalibrates practice and aligns leadership to today's classrooms.

PATHWAY 3 | Framework Excellence

Laying the Groundwork for Instructional Excellence: For experienced Framework users, this pathway advances instructional excellence through coaching and practice refinement.

PATHWAY 4 | Framework Coaching

Coaching for Collective Growth: For schools growing coaches and teachers, this pathway sparks a vibrant culture of coaching and continuous growth.
